

Superphishin'

Words: Gary McGath, Copyright 2015

When your data is in danger,
When it's picked up by a stranger,
And they never asked for your permission,
There is someone you can blame
For putting spyware on your disk:
Lenooooooooovo's Superphishin'!

If it looks like you have well and truly caught it,
You should have known it was infected when you bought it.

Now you understand the risk,
Of SSL faked on the disk;
A painful death for them is what you're wishin'.
There is someone you can blame
For putting spyware on your disk:
Lenooooooooovo's Superphishin'!
