

You Gotta Have Orcs

Lyrics: Gary McGath, Copyright 2013

Music: "You Gotta Have Heart" from "Damn Yankees"

You gotta have orcs.
All you really need is orcs.
If the trufen say you're wrecking the tale,
Just let 'em wail, those dorks.

You gotta have fights,
Battles are such lovely sights.
With an army that makes everyone near
Tremble in fear and fright.

When you're running out of story,
'Cause the movie is too long,
Just throw in a scene that's gory
And you know you can't go wrong,
There's nothing to it, so just do it.

You gotta have orcs,
Piles and piles and piles of orcs.
Oh, it's fine to have a hobbit of course,
But we have the force
That really works,
'Cause you gotta have orcs.

A great writer, we haven't got.
A great picture, we haven't got.
A great story, we haven't got.
What have we got?

We've got orcs.
All you really need is orcs.
If the trufen say you're wrecking the tale,
Just let 'em wail,
Those dorks.

We've got fights.
Battles are such lovely sights.
With an army that makes everyone near
Tremble in fear and fright.

When you hear a distant drumming
(doom, doom, doom)
Then you know what happens next
(argh, argh, argh)
Soon the orcs will be a-coming
(kill, kill, kill)
Though they weren't there in the text
(pooh, pooh, pooh).

We've got orcs,
Piles and piles and piles of orcs.
Oh, it's fine to have a hobbit of course,
But we have the force
That really works,

So we don't care if fans are crying, or if they bitch,
Our version is better 'cause it makes us rich.
And the reason is, we've got orcs.
We've got orcs.
